Fourteen laymen were ordained on Sunday. Eight were ordained as deacons and six as elders.

Bishop Adna W. Leonard had charge of the service assisted by the district superintendents and elders selected by the candidates.

The deacons ordained were: Elmer N. Haley, Scotia; Frank V. Getty, Beekmantown; J. Milo Jeffrey, Petersburg; Clark S. Defendorf, Ganessvoort; Frank W. Grippen, Saratoga Springs; Malcolm F. Kelly, Lyon Mountain; Nicola Notarapasquale, Madison, N. J.; and Millicent Corps, Grafton.

The elders: David Livingston, Johnstown; Albert E. Campion, Knox; Harold W. Griffis, Jonesville; Thomas E. Poindexter, Champlain; Chester A. Stimson, Waterford and Alan F. Bain, Poultney, Vt.

Superintendent Albert D. Angell reported total general building improvements in the northern district of $180,000, which included $10,000 spent on remodeling the parsonage at Hudson Falls, and $5,000 for a new parsonage at South Glens Falls. Improvements at Fort Edward amounted to $1,500. Other churches at which improvements were made included Hartford, Blue Mountain Lake, Champlain, Chazy, Port Henry, West Chazy, Willsboro, Chestertown, Jay, Luzerne and Dannemora.

Will Hays will give a tenth of his wealth to the church. When we land a $100,000 a year job like his we'll be tempted to follow his example.

OWL'S HEAD AT KEENE
 NOW OPEN FOR BUSINESS

The Owl's Head hotel at Keene is now open for the summer season, according to announcement by the proprietor, W. B. Washburn. This coming Sunday this popular hotel will serve a special chicken dinner which is expected to appeal to residents from this entire section of the North Country.

Women's Clubs to Attend
 Baptist Church Service

Members of various women's organizations with their parents and families, have been invited to take part in a special service next Sunday evening in the Baptist church in recognition of "Better Homes Week." The movement to observe the week of April 24th to 30th as "Better Homes Week" is being promoted on a nation-wide scale by the National and State Federations of Women's Clubs. The local Woman's Club is sponsoring the movement in Lake Placid.

At the service, Rev. Milford E. Cheney, pastor of the church will give an address on "The Great American Home," and the entire service will be given over to the interest of home and family life.

In addition to the Woman's Club, other organizations participating will include Eastern Star, the Women's Relief Corps, the American Legion Auxilliary, and the Lake Placid Grange. Friends and families of members are expected to attend, and all who are interested in home life are cordially invited.

 Saranac Easter Services

Adirondack Commandery Turns Out Seventy-five Strong in Full Regalia

Members of the newly-organized Adirondack Commandery, Knights Templar, of Lake Placid, with members from this village and Saranac Lake attended Easter services at the Methodist Episcopal church in Saranac Lake Sunday, following a parade in full regalia through the principal streets of Saranac Lake, headed by the Saranac Lake boys' band.

This was the first public appearance of the commandery in Saranac Lake. Seventy-five members were in the line of march. The parade was followed by a concert of sacred music in front of the church, after which the members attended the services.

The sermon was preached by Rev. E. B. Brownell who is leaving Saranac Lake to assume the pastorate of St. Mark's church in Troy.

We never realized how many fool questions there were until the "What Do You Know" lists began to appear.

Much picturesque eloquence has been wasted on inanimate objects such as a recalcitrant golf ball or a flat tire.

FORTY-THREE IN EDUCATIONAL TOUR OF COUNTY Y

Most of Time Spent in Capital District—Roster of Those Going

The registrations for the first annual educational tour under the auspices of the Essex County Y. M. C. A. indicate the success of the tour. There will be 43 in the party, 32 older boys from Essex county signed for the tour; 2 boys from the Plattsburg Y. M. C. A. will join the party at Albany; and 8 men driving cars, with Secretary Frank K. Gibson of the County "Y" brings the total to 43 taking the trip.

The following men placed their cars in the auto caravan: Fred Torrance, AuSable Forks; Robert Estes, Keene Valley; E. W. Parker, Elizabethtown; Rev. Elbert Beebe, Mel Lott, George Eastman, and Scott Phinney from Westport, and William E. Feek, Lake Placid. Harry Davis, of Westport, is driving Mr. Parker's car.

The boys making the tour are Robert Torrance, Horace Sharrow and Miles Laundry from AuSable

Forks; Emerson Washbond, Basile Sanders, Elmore and Adrian Edmonds, from Keene Valley; John Peck, Orrin Howard and Reid Elethory, from Crown Point; Lloyd Davis, Kenneth Strobel, Wesley Taylor, Jay Woods, Anthony Segretto and Rowan Fay, from Lake Placid; George James, Earle Dougan, Phelps Parker from Elizabethtown; Hall Parker from Saranac Lake; and Wallace Gardner, Charles Griffith, Earl Frisbie Jr., James Napper, Osborne Walker, Henry Decker, Earl Phinney Jr., Rolland Phinney, John Vaughn, Willard Lampson, Nelson Beebe and Marshall Gough, from Westport.

The tour will last four days, and will include trips thru great industries at Troy, Watervliet, Albany and Schenectady. The state capital will be visited, also the great state educational building. The boys are especially looking forward to their trip thru Radio Station WGY in Schenectady Thursday evening.

A prize essay contest will be promoted by the County Y. M. C. A. after the tour is over. This essay contest is open to those boys making the tour.

The tour is conducted under the personal direction of Secretary Frank K. Gibson, of the County Y. M. C. A.
